2-4 A.M. "Howl" s Bear H 1 This Weekend

The ladies of the Second National All Women's Bear Hunt will be out this weekend to try and successfully hunt down the 500 pound bear which they bagged near Mrs. William Brownell of Camp Arrowhead in the rear and in front from left to right are Mrs. Margaret Hirt, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Mabel Dingman, president of the hunt, and Alger "Whiskers" Brooks of the Manitowish River, one of the guides.

Six Juveniles Nabbed In Local Theft Cases

Six juveniles have been apprehended by the Grayling City Police with the aid of several citizens in a solving of many petty thefts and breaking and entering cases that occurred this summer.

The youths are in the custody of their parents until their appearance in Probate Court to face the charges.

The youths ranged in age from 12 to 15 years. They were apprehended last Friday by Grayling City Police. Very little of what was stolen has been recovered.

In the case of many bicycles stolen by the group they were disassembled and two or three were used to make another bike to avoid being recognized. Bicycles and parts are being sorted out and will be returned to the rightful owners as soon as possible.

Two of the youths admitted entering the B. and C. Supermarket two or three times and taking $1.35 in cash, cuffed, and the other two were taken to the police station. The pair also admitted breaking into Stevenson - Brown sales room and taking $9.00 in cash and a $100.00 camera.

One of the high points of the evening will be the crowning of the queen of this year's hunt.

Mrs. Dingman said that reservations have been coming in at a much faster rate than last year when it was necessary to go into a swamp and kill the wounded animal. Warm, dry weather over that weekend made hunting rough until a light rain started late Sunday afternoon. It was then that the dogs picked up the bear's scent and brought the hunt to a successful end.

Over eighty women took part in last year's hunt which brought out many newspaper and magazine writers as well as radio and television men. Arthur Godfrey gave the hunt national mention on his television program. It is expected that many writers will again be on hand, Mrs. Dingman said.

For the past four days I have been looking for inspiration... that elusive something or other which makes for good copy. But no inspiration. Nothing. Just a remarkable blankness of thought and ideas. But the time has come when something MUST be put down on paper, or else our editor will be most upset and have to find some other front page news for the spot usually reserved for The Stump.

There is much that should be mentioned, I suppose. From the dim recesses of my mind come several items which I feel should be commented upon at some decent sort of length. For instance, the recent election of the Post as Chairman of the Grayling Winter Carnival. Good man, Eric, and will do a commendable job on this as he has on every other civic duty he takes on. How he manages to run his business and do the other things too is an everlasting mystery to me. But he does.

I should also mention something about the parking problem downtown Grayling. The most often heard suggestion is that store owners and employees park back of the stores, or somewhere else other than in front of their stores. Another is that parking meters be installed, to operate only during business hours and only during the "seasons" - fishing, hunting and winter sports. Personally, Jack Pine thinks that the idea of parking spaces and more revenue to the city coffers. And who can object to that?

I also ought to comment about the relatively low price at the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. But I can't comment on that since I wasn't there myself. That pot can't call the kettle black.

Something nice also should be said about Mrs. Jennie Jackson down by McMaster's Bridge, who, at her expense, put in a free lunch for the community. In the past year, those who have gone down to McMaster's had to pay a quarter to pull out a boat and 15c to take out a canoe at McMaster's. Thanks to Mrs. Jackson, that foolishness is over and done with. It might be mentioned that the Grayling and Roscommon canoe livers (most of them) and the Guides Association made the day's work for the community. It was a fine day for the community.

And then, too, there is the new hospital. Every time I go out there I am more and more amazed. Jack Pine has seen a lot of hospitals in his day, both as a patient, and employee and a hospital supply salesman. But he has never seen one quite like the one here in Grayling. It has everything, the biggest hospitals do, and quite a few features that even those don't have. It is a masterpiece of design. But it takes more than a genius to build a hospital. It takes a team of men and women, and that which we have here. That takes money and far-sightedness. Grayling has shown both. One man knows, that's the new hospital. It is the nature of the new hospital. It will attract ten doctors. Others, who also know, say that patients will come from many miles away to avail themselves of the facilities for diagnostic work, surgery and nursing care right here in Grayling. Jack Pine was in there again last week, and was told that if everything goes as planned, the new hospital will be in use next month. And, so far, everything is going according to plan. The Sisters of Mercy, however, still say it will be December. But they just want to raise any false hopes. They leave that to me. By the way, a new Sister has been added to the staff. The place is really a dream. A dream come true.

And I suppose I should say something about hunting. All I know about is bird hunting, so far... and I have seen a few birds, scattered in different places. The usual hunting spots are dry for me this year. So far my best luck has been in the Jack Pine. Like it better that way... the walking is easier. The birds are just better than they are now. When I go hunting, and things are slow, I am just as like as not to stretch out on the warm ground, smell the fall smells, the pungent odor of drying leaves and shedding pine. Seeing the array of colors that are not only in the trees, but on the ground as well. And I think the long, long thoughts which the hunt brings to mind. It is a wonderful thing, and he just does. n't care one way or another about getting any game.

All of which more or less explains why I didn't have anything to say this week. Or does it? JACK PINE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS we, as a people, take just pride in our nation's progress and accomplishments, and WHEREAS these achievements of our country are based, in no small measure, on the energy, as well as the multiple products, derived from petroleum, and WHEREAS the oil industry of the United States has made other contributions to our general welfare and health, many of immeasurable worth, and WHEREAS the week of October 13 has been designated as a time when citizens of this community engaged in the oil business report to their neighbors and fellow-citizens on their achievements to date, and their plans for the future.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Emil Giegling, Mayor of Grayling, do hereby proclaim the period of October 13 to 19, inclusive, to be OIL PROGRESS WEEK and do invite the attention of our citizens to the many and varied contributions of our oil business to modern living, and to the freedoms which are the special heritage of this nation, and without which neither the oil industry nor the progress it typifies could exist.

I, WITNESS THEREOF, have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of City of Grayling to be affixed.

Grayling Drops Second Game To Pellston Hornets 15 to 0 Last Week

Junior Varsity Game With Houghton Lake There On Thursday, October 17th At 7:30 P. M.

The Grayling High Vikings seeking their first gridiron win since October of 1955 meet the tough Mancelona Ironmen at the lighted gridiron of the Grayling Memorial Recreation Area this Friday night. The Ironmen are a big, fast and tough outfit that trampled the Oscoda Owls in their season's opener and then outlasted the highly touted Charlevoix Rayders by one point and last weekend were upset by a one point defeat at the hands of the Harbor Springs Rams.

This Friday doesn't appear to be the time that the Viking express will get back on the victory trail. In other conference action this coming weekend the Gaylord Blue Devils will be at East Jordan; Boyne City will be at Harbor Springs and Pellston will be at Charlevoix.

Last Friday, the green and white clad Grayling team invaded the field of the Pellston Hornets, the Northern Class C Conference's most northern team. When the contest was over the Hornets held a 15 to 0 victory.

The Vikings were handicapped by the loss of end Bill Lucksted who was wounded in a hunting accident and fullback Ronnie Kellogg was home with the "flu". Another definite obstacle was 95 yards in penalties that Grayling was assessed. These penalties, time after time, wiped out first down gains. Called mostly on the green and white was illegal procedure in the line — a lineman moving after the team was in position.

The Viking's pass defense also crumbled allowing the Hornets to gain 178 yards through the air. The only shining part for the Vikings was the running of Dick Moore on quarterback sneaks. Wayne Ingalls, Dave Wyman and Jim Perry turned in some fine blocking in the line, opening up quick holes which Moore slipped through.

The Hornets struck in the first quarter after the Vikings kicked off. Pellston was bottled up and punted to the Vikings. Grayling couldn't move the ball either and punted back to Pellston. The Hornets moved the ball this time and on a 20 yard pass play from the quarterback to the left end scored their first TD. The try for extra point was no good. In the third quarter, another pass play moved the ball into scoring position and a three yard line plunge scored the second six pointer. The extra point was added on a line sneak.

Just as the game ended, Grayling was forced to punt from their ten yard line. A bad pass from center went over the kicker's head and into the end zone. Grayling recovered the ball but Pellston gained two more points on a safety.

In other conference action last weekend, the powerful Boyne Rams clobbered East Jordan 41 to 0; Charlevoix downed Gaylord 26 to 0 and as previously mentioned above the Harbor Rams eked out a one point victory over Mancelona.

The Grayling-juniors varsity is to meet the Houghton Lake juniors varsity in a game at Houghton Lake next Thursday, October 17. Kickoff time is set for 7:30 p. m.

ROUTES ENTITLED TO 90% FEDERAL AID IN THE 16-YEAR FEDERAL HIGHWAY PROGRAM

ONLY 32 PER CENT OF THE HIGHWAY ROUTES IN MICHIGAN WHICH HAVE A U.S. DESIGNATION ARE ENTITLED TO 90-10 FEDERAL ASSISTANCE. THE ABOVE ROUTES, DESIGNATED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AS THE VITAL INTERSTATE SYSTEM, WILL RECEIVE HIGH PRIORITY IN MICHIGAN'S ROAD BUILDING PROGRAM. THEY MUST BE BUILT TO LIMITED ACCESS STANDARDS TO EARN 90% FEDERAL AID. FEDERAL ALLOCATIONS TO COMPLETE THESE SYSTEMS ARE TO BE MADE OVER A PERIOD OF 16 YEARS.

Lansing, October 2nd—Only 35 of Michigan's 83 counties will share 90 percent U. S. aid in highway construction under present federal highway plans. Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said today.

"The five-year highway construction program which we are about to announce for Michigan obviously will have to place great emphasis on speedy development of those routes on which the Highway Department can earn 90 percent federal aid," Mackie declared.

"Many people are under the mistaken impression that any highway with a U. S.

designation is entitled to 90 percent assistance, but actually less than 32 percent of these routes in Michigan are eligible."

The Commission said latest estimates indicate the reconstruction of the some 1,000 miles of Interstate routes in Michigan would cost in the vicinity of $1,500,000,000.

Detroit, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Flint and Saginaw have been given special urban Interstate connecting routes in the program which will qualify for 90 percent assistance, but, with the exception of the John C. Lodge and Edsel Ford expressways in Detroit, final locations of these connections have not yet been determined.

"Latest information from the Bureau of Public Roads indicates the federal government hopes to reimburse Michigan for the cost of the reconstruction of the system over a period of 16 years," Commissioner Mackie said. "We are attempting to budget for completion of the entire system in less than that time, perhaps in less than 10 years."

"The speed with which the federal government can reimburse the State Highway Department after we have paid contractors for completion of the work on the system will, in part, determine how long completion of the work will take. It should be clearly understood that we pay the contractors with State funds and reimbursement takes place later."

"The system is designated to connect major Michigan cities with a national system of highways which will comprise one percent of the total U. S. highway mileage but carry over 20 percent of the traffic."

"In order to earn 90 percent federal aid, all routes on this Interstate System must be built to controlled access or expressway standards. There will be no stop lights, cross traffic will be separated at all intersections, and in most areas a right of way of 300 feet will be required."

May Obtain Federal Aid For New 160 Million Dollar Mackinac Bridge

MOTORISTS may not have to pay $100,000,000 for the Mackinac Straits Bridge after all. It is all in the exploratory stage yet, but hopes are bright the federal government will pay 90 percent of the cost.

The situation came to light when Rep. Knox, who represents parts of both Michigan's peninsulas in Congress, urged the state to take advantage of federal aid, along with other states.

The opportunity existed since the 1956 federal highway aid formula was adopted, granting states 90 percent of the cost of interstate system superhighways. "Michigan has every right to the funds for the bridge," said Knox.

The Knox statement caught Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, a Democrat, without a public statement handy. He repeated quickly, claiming his office had been working on the idea.

To qualify, the proposal on the bridge must be submitted to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, thence to the Department of Commerce and then to Congress.

Ironically, the possibilities of getting up to $90,000,000 for the Michigan project — long an unrealized dream — has presented its own series of problems.

What, for instance, will happen to the investors who bought the bridge bonds? If the bonds are retired with federal funds before maturity, a huge premium payment is in prospect.

Where will Michigan get the $10,000,000 in matching funds? If taken from other state highway funds, will the construction of other needed superhighways be delayed?

Will Congress release the money directly for the bridge or allow it as a credit, for use in construction of other highways?

If granted, will the money bring demands that the bridge become toll free or will a token charge—something far less than the average $3.80 charge—be levied for maintenance?

All these questions must be answered before the state can go ahead with qualifying the bridge for federal aid.

Knox contends it is already eligible because it links existing interstate highways, US-31 with US-2 across the Upper Peninsula.

Federal money already has been used to build the approaches to the bridge, another powerful argument.

Insiders believe the bridge crossing will carry a toll for at least a year after the five-mile span between Mackinaw City and

St. Ignace is opened early in November. Congress, now in adjournment, will return next January and the final step in the financing will have to wait until then and probably later.

Still another argument is the national defense system. With construction of the bridge, the state's ferry fleet will be taken out of service, leaving only the bridge to carry traffic between major interstate highways. And a knotty complication is the defense situation if something happens to the bridge with the ferry fleet abolished and no emergency method of crossing.

CHILDREN ARE FLOCKING back to the schools in record numbers this fall.

Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction, said the public school enrollment will be 400,000 children to schools each day.

The increased numbers will require a total of 56,500 teachers. Buses will transport more than 400,000 children to schools each day.

Because of a cutback in transportation money, only the students living 1 1/2 miles from school will ride the buses. Last year, the service was provided for those living more than a mile away.

Dr. Bartlett noted a change in Michigan's school problems.

"Up to now, we have been worried about providing elementary schools, but the birth rate increase of the 1940s is now having a strong effect on our high schools," he said.

All this is pressing down on the system, he said, at a time when the nation and state needs more physicists, mathematicians and engineers for defense industries and for higher education.

DATES TO REMEMBER: The next statewide primary election will be held Aug. 5, 1958, and the general election Nov. 4, 1958.

An Extractive Industry . . .

Oil is an extractive industry. And don't let that description confuse you. It simply means that the oil producer extracts material from a natural deposit which cannot be replenished. In producing the oil, in other words, he steadily exhausts the deposit and depletes its capital value. And when the well finally is used up, it must be replaced with another. If that sounds easy, it isn't. The risks in wildcatting for oil are extraordinary. Only one wildcat well in nine finds any oil at all—and only one in 44 finds as much as a million barrels, which is about the break-even point for commercial production.

Here is why oil producers—like producers in other extractive industries—are allowed what is known as a depletion allowance. In the case of oil the allowance is 27 1/2 per cent. Producers deduct that from their income taxes, under certain restrictions, one being that percentage depletion is limited to not more than 50 per cent of the net income from each producing property. This is in no way a special favor to the oil men. It simply recognizes a fact of life—that their capital is exhausted by production.

This vital provision of the tax laws has been one of the major reasons for the ability of the industry to attract capital in the enormous amounts needed for locating and developing new oil reserves. It has been of tremendous importance in making the risks of wildcat drilling worth taking in spite of the heavy odds against success. And its importance will continue to grow, in this era when demand for oil steadily climbs, and that demand can be met only by drilling more and deeper wells at an ever-rising cost.

Forced Labor In The U.S. . . .

General Douglas MacArthur warns that if the government's "lust for taxes" is not curbed this country may be taxed into socialistic slavery.

He cited the fact that in 70 years the average per capita tax rate has risen from $1.98 to $444.86—more than 200 times. He added: "The government takes in taxes over a third of the income of the average citizen."

"JOINERS"

American people have often joined groups which enable us to furnish our cup with the best merchandise at the lowest possible price. This doesn't affect our individuality as independents, but rather inspires us to do a better job within our own stores. Our whole future is in this business, and that, in turn, is tied to how we handle our customers. That's why we keep our prices down and treat our customers the way we'd like to be treated.

You join a wonderful group of customers when you make our store your food headquarters. There's no intention of fees or dues. Just have the desire to save money on your total weekly supplies. You'll like our friendly service. We are generous (I used it again). We like crowds, and hope you join the one at our store. Save as you shop with us. We join with other independents in buying.

Don't like 'em? Try 'em my way! That's next week.

DARKEST DAY IN HISTORY

each year. That means that he or she is required to work entirely for the government from January 1 until May 10. This begins to resemble the Soviet forced labor system. . . .

There are more ways to enslave a people than by bloody revolution and the violent seizure of power by dictators. Confiscatory taxation is one of those ways.

Washington Has Taken Over . . .

Publisher Tom Anderson of Farm & Ranch magazine points out that "In 1914 state and local governments spent 70 per cent of all money spent by government. Now 70 per cent is spent by Washington bureaucrats." Then, to make a bad matter worse, "A big part of our tax money never comes back to us in services—but is lived up by the swarms of bureaucrats whose hands it goes through."

President Eisenhower has proposed that the states assume responsibility, in whole or in part, for many projects now handled on the federal level. If the states will do that, the taxpayers will find that they will get more and better service—and for less money.

At the last meeting of the village council it was decided to put into operation again that old ordinance regulating curfew hours. Accordingly, beginning at once, the curfew bell will be rung at 8:45 o'clock each evening and again at 9 p. m., after which all children not accompanied by their parents, guardian, or some adult person who has the child in charge, must be off the streets.

Miss Wilma Burrows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold S. Burrows, and Mr. Wesley LaGrow, son of Mrs. Alex LaGrow, were united in marriage Saturday morning at a pretty ceremony at St. Mary's Church, The Rev. Fr. J. L. Culligan officiated. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents and during the early afternoon the young couple left for Detroit, where they will make their home. Mrs. John Walker, of Detroit, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Trudeau, of Farmdale, were in attendance at the nuptials. Having both been born in this country and their entire lives spent here in our midst they have enjoyed a large circle of friends, known to most everyone. Both are Grayling High School graduates and the groom for some time has been employed by a furniture concern in Detroit, while the bride has assisted her father as cashier in his market.

Mrs. Frank Sanders, son Paul and daughter Martha, accompanied by Rudy Harrison were in Alpena last week Wednesday on business. Miss Mary Schumann of Lansing was at the family home over the weekend. She had as her guest Miss Phyllis Walker, also of Lansing. They returned Sunday evening.

This is reported to be one of the finest stores owned by that gigantic organization. And new and modern show cases and shelving make the place most attractive and convenient. No longer must cargoes of goods have to be carried in through the front door, but instead there are convenient back and side doors for such work, doing away with much labor and muss. The new quarters afford ample room for the business, with plenty of light and conveniences.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Trudeau and daughter Guinevere spent a few days the forepart of the week in Detroit. They were accompanied to Farmdale by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Trudeau, who had been here for the LaGrow-Burrows wedding.

Letters To The Editor
Dear Jack Pine:
As a result of your column in the Avalanche last week regarding the football game, we would like to extend our sincere apologies. Although this display of feelings was the reaction of only a few, it did create an impression of poor sportsmanship.

This boy played a wonderful game and we are sorry that these few students will realize their mistake and refrain from such demonstrations at the following games.

We hope that Boyne City—and you will accept our apologies. We also wish them the best of luck.

The main reasons for this are the constant technical improvements and the new, better methods of doing business in the oil industry that have grown out of the intense competition among thousands of oil companies - competition in the search for oil, in research, in refining, in transportation, and at your service station.

SEN. POTTER REPORTS

From Washington

September 30, 1957
HOT, TENSE Little Rock, Ark., where until recently the Government's intention to fully endorse the basic principles of the bill of rights. I support Uresid in sending the 101st Airborne in aid of the efforts of school authorities in carrying out orderly integration, as planned by them and accepted by the majority of Little Rock's moderate and law-abiding citizens.

Moscow has inflated Little Rock into an anti-democracy, anti-Americanism, getting a little tired of those who call themselves Americans who elbow us into these embarrassing and disgraceful international corners. They do it by slyly casting mud at the Supreme Court, by throwing legal roadblocks in the way of minority groups, by asking for "time," like advice to them is, if you don't like democracy, go join the Russians. Let us hope Little Rock will provide an object lesson to those who have chipped away at unwelcome or deliberately - at efforts to work out racial problems through patience and cooperation. After all, there has to be cooperation on both sides or we'll never reach a solution.

It has been most gratifying to me in my travels through Michigan these days to find so much sincere support of the President's recent actions.
A SHIP WITHOUT A COUNTRY, the Mayflower II has been taken over by Pilgrims in Massachusetts.

where a permanent berth for the topic of the Pilgrim vessel is being built. Now is the time for all those in the Middle West who want the Mayflower to sail up the St. Lawrence Seaway to speak up. I offer the facilities of my Washington office for a meeting of Michigan and Middle Western representatives with officials of the Pilmoth Plantation.

A Seaway voyage, of course, won't be practical until next spring, but planning should start right now. Pilmoth Plantation expects to take ownership on Thanksgiving Day but needs funds to complete its permanent shrine for the Mayflower. The new owners are a non-profit group. However, they would expect the Seaway return to produce some financial return to defray costs of the ship's berth.

Therefore, these questions must be answered: Will the Seaway mission charge to view the Mayflower? Who will man her? What itinerary? Are the cities who want the vessel willing to put up a moderate financial guarantee for her appearance?
Since I proposed the voyage last summer, letters of enthusiasm have poured in from ports, civic groups, individuals and touristic associations. Even the U. S. Department of State favors the trip. I am confident a Mayflower II voyage into the Middle West would build international good will and dramatize the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway and Mackinac Bridge.

HEDGEHOPPING. through Michigan to fill a heavy schedule speaking dates has stretched, but not slashed, my pipelines to Washington. I am continuing to maintain close contact with all Defense Department procurement agencies in a steady effort to bring more contracts into the state. We need those jobs.

Best wishes
C. W. POTTER
